St. James's, October 30.

THIS being the Birth-Day of His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, there was a very numerous and ſplendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction: And at Night there were Illuminations, and other Publick Demonſtrations of Joy.

By the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Bolton,

WHereas we have received Information, that on Tueſday the 22d of this Inſtant October, between the Hours of 10 and 11 at Night, a tall Man with long lank Hair, in a ſhort light coloured Coat, did in Stafford-Street in the City of Dublin, in a moſt barbarous and inhumane Manner, murther and aſſaſſinate Colonel Henry Lutterell, as he was going in a Hackney Chair from a Coffee-Houſe on Cork-Hill, to his own Houſe in Stafford-Street aforeſaid, by firing a Piſtol or Gun loaden with Ball, into the ſaid Chair, and thereby ſo dangerouſly wounding the ſaid Henry Lutterell, that he is ſince dead of his ſaid Wounds; and that the ſaid Aſſaſſin found Means to make his Eſcape, and the Authors and Contrivers of ſuch an horrid Murther are ſtill undiſcovered.

And whereas we have likewiſe been informed, that on Thurſday the 5th of September laſt, the Houſe of Charles O Hara, Eſq; at Kinſaly in the County of Dublin, was in the Night time broke open by a Perſon now in Goal, with intent to aſſaſſinate and murther the ſaid Charles O Hara; but that no Diſcovery hath yet been made of the Authors and Contrivers of the ſaid villanous Attempt.

We the Lord Lieutenant and Council, having a juſt Abhorrence of all ſuch barbarous and horrid Practices, and thinking it abſolutely neceſſary that all due Encouragement ſhould be given for the Diſcovery and Apprehenſion of the ſaid Aſſaſſin, and the Authors and Contrivers of the Murther of the ſaid Colonel Henry Lutterell, do by this our Proclamation, publiſh and declare, that we will give the neceſſary Orders for Payment of the Sum of 300 l. to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall diſcover, take, and apprehend the Perſon who fired the ſaid Piſtol or Gun, or any of the Authors or Contrivers of the ſaid horrid Murther, ſo as he, they, or any of them, may be convicted thereof; and in Caſe any of the Perſons concerned therein (other than and except the Perſon who fired the ſaid Piſtol or Gun) ſhall make a full Diſcovery of his Accomplices, ſo as one or more of them may be apprehended, and thereof convicted, ſuch Diſcoverer ſhall, beſides the ſaid Reward, have and receive his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon for the ſame.

And for the more effectual Diſcovery and Apprehenſion of the Authors and Contrivers of the ſaid villanous Attempt upon the ſaid Charles O Hara; we do alſo hereby further publiſh and declare, that we will give the like neceſſary Orders for Payment of the Sum of 100 l. to ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall diſcover, take, and apprehend all or any of the Authors or Contrivers of the ſaid barbarous Fact, (other than and except the Perſon now in Goal for the ſaid Fact) ſo as they, or any of them, may be convicted thereof: And in Caſe any of the Perſons concerned therein (other than and except the Perſon now in Goal) ſhall make a full Diſcovery of his Accomplices, ſo as one or more of them may be apprehended and thereof convicted, ſuch Diſcoverer ſhall, beſides the ſaid Reward, have and receive His Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon for the ſame.

Given at the Council-Chamber in Dublin, the Twenty Fourth Day of October, 1717.

God Save the KING.

Vienna, Oct. 27. The Aga who lately brought to Prince Eugene Propoſals of Peace from the Turks, was ſent back to the Ottoman Court, (which is ſaid to be now at Adrianople,) with His Imperial Majeſty's Anſwer; and upon the Return of that Aga to Belgrade, where he is daily expected, 'tis believed the Negociation will forthwith be ſet on foot. We have Advice from Sardinia, that Cagliari ſurrendered to the Spaniards on the ſecond Inſtant; but that the Marqueſs de Rubi had before made his Eſcape in the Night, that he might not be forced to capitulate for the whole Iſland. That Marqueſs writes, that there are two Places ſtill of ſome Strength in the North-Weſt Part of the Iſland, called Alguero and Caſtel-Arragoneſe, which he propoſes to defend all the Winter, if he can be ſupported in Time by Reinforcements from Naples or Genoa.

Dreſden, Nov. 3. On the 26th of laſt Month the Queen arrived here from Torgaw, and on the Sunday following aſſiſted at the Celebration of the Jubilee for the Eſtabliſhment of the Reformation in this Country; on which Occaſion her Majeſty received the Communion publickly in the Royal Chapel in the Caſtle. A Declaration is printing, in order to be publiſhed throughout this Electorate, by which his Majeſty ſignifies to all his Subjects, that as they have enjoyed intire Liberty of Conſcience in his Dominions ſince the Time he changed his Religion, ſo his Majeſty will for the future maintain them in the Enjoyment of the ſame Liberty, without ſuffering the leaſt Alteration to be introduced on Occaſion of his Son the Prince's late Change of Religion. Some Days ago Major Haberſack and Captain Schutz were ſhot to Death, having been condemned by a Court-Martial, for not doing their Duty in ſome Actions againſt the Poliſh Confederates, and eſpecially when the latter ſurprized Poſen, in which was a Garriſon of the King's, commanded by Major General Seidlitz, who is ſentenced to pay a very great Fine, and to lye ſix Years in Priſon: Major Doberſchutz was alſo condemned to be ſhot, but was pardoned by his Majeſty: Four other Officers who did not appear to take their Trials, were hanged in Effigie.

Hague, Nov. 9. On the 7th Inſtant the Lord Cadogan embarked on board the William and Mary Yacht at the Brill, and put to Sea the ſame Evening. On the 2d Inſtant M. Van Stucken preſented to the States General a Letter from the King of Denmark, to acquaint them with his Reaſons for ſtopping ſeveral North-Holland Ships in the Sound, on Account of the Arrears which are due to him ſince the laſt War. M. Geerſdorff, the Poliſh Envoy, has preſented to their High Mightineſſes a Letter from the King his Maſter, to notifie, that his Son, the Electoral Prince of Saxony, had embraced the Roman Catholick Religion; but that it ſhould make no Alteration, neither in regard to his own Country, nor to his Meaſures with other foreign Powers.
